

LINDA CORLEY - PRODUCER

Linda Corley is a television producer who has worked across all media; from PBS documentaries to reality television.

She began her career at the BBC in London but soon returned stateside to produce and write television series and documentaries for PBS. Over the years she used her writing talents as a reporter for the award-winning nightly national news series Nightly Business Report as well as the travel adventure series Florida!, produced for both Public Television and The Travel Channel. Linda also created public television's first national design series Decor with actress Dina Merrill which won national acclaim and went on to serve as a model for future design programs on cable and network television.

As a producer of national documentaries for PBS, Linda created Vizcaya which was narrated by actor Andy Garcia and was nominated for a Suncoast Emmy in the Best Documentary category. Her most recent documentary for PBS, West Encounters East, which showcases the emergence of Japanese Brazilian artists on the international arts scene, enjoyed a long run at film festivals across the country including the New York City Independent Film Festival.

A few years ago Linda transitioned to reality TV as the supervising producer for the Lifetime's series The Sisterhood, a Hotsnakes Media production. While working with Hot Snakes Media in New York, she also participated as a story producer on their hit reality series Breaking Amish as well as Return to Amish, Brave New World and Breaking The Faith which aired on TLC in 2013 and 2014.

Her current projects take her back to Public Television as the senior producer of a series designed for Baby Boomers entitled Living Well With Carmel, as well as the writer/producer of an upcoming PBS documentary, The Fragility of Tradition where she is working with filmmaker Stella Holmes.

Linda is the recipient of many top broadcast awards including seven Emmy awards and Travel Weekly's Silver Magellan Award. She is also the published author of The Kennedy Family Album.

Linda was a resident of Parkland, Florida for over 20 years. Her two adult children attended Marjory Stoneman Douglas.
