

You are committed to upholding the CCP “Standards of Professional Conduct”. As an applicant and participant to the CCP program, you shall:

- Maintain exemplary professional conduct.
- Actively encourage the integration of AFC membership into all aspects of the college where you are employed.
- Support the culture of the college where you are employed in an ethical manner.
- Strive to continually advance professional knowledge to achieve higher levels of excellence in your position and in the AFC
- Serve all members of the public, students, and individuals associated with the college with respect.
- Support the interests of your college and carry out your responsibilities without, using your position for undue personal gain.
- Encourage all co-workers eligible to be a part of the AFC to participate in the activities and leadership of the college chapter, as appropriate.
- Support service as an integral part of professionalism and actively participate in related activities.